SLOW DOWN...WE MOVE TO FAST!

When a youngster is 10, he wonders when he will ever become a teenager. When he becomes a teen, He can't wait until he can drive. now he thinks the magical age is 21. As he is going through his thirties and forty's, he thinks he will be enchanted by his 50th... maybe once and for all he will be out of debt. Wow! And so life goes on! So quickly it is gone. My husband and I have been very fortunate to own a pair of Friesian Horses for some years now. They have very sweet and friendly personalities, full of energy and have lots of fun. We love to harness them and hook them to a carriage and drive them down the country roads. We are forced to slow down. We can see the beauty of the wildflowers along side the road and the lacy ferns growing in the ditches. We can see the kids play in the back yards. What a blessing to see "Grandpa & grandma" rocking in their chairs on the farmhouse front porch. The older folks wave when they see us coming. Most likely they remember hitching up their horses and thinking what a fast paced life they have lived. When riding in a carriage behind a pair of horses, one is forced to slow to their pace. Enjoy every minute of the life God has given you. Don't wish it away. The greatest of days are not those in which everything is wonderful, amazing, or breathtaking but days that are filled with simple pleasures. Take time to share a day with a friend. Time goes by so quickly...soon you will be the one in the rocking chair wondering why your life has passed so quickly.

-don't overlook life's small joys while searching for the big ones-
Blessings, Mary Vos

We are on the WEB!

Who is the Rich Man?

A rich industrialist from the North was horrified to find the southern fisherman lying lazily beside his boat, smoking a pipe.

"Why aren't you out fishing?" said the industrialist. "Because I have caught enough fish for the day," said the fisherman.

"Why don't you catch some more?"

"What would I do with them?"

"You could earn more money," was the industrialist's reply. "With that you could have a motor fixed to your boat and go into deeper waters and catch more fish. Then you would make enough to buy nylon nets. These would bring you more fish and more money. Soon you would have enough money to buy two boats...maybe a fleet of boats. Then you would be a rich man like me."

"What would I do then?" asked the fisherman.

"Then you could really enjoy life."

"What do you think I am doing right now?"
